MARSH BOILES, son of J. L. and Mary Boiles, was born at Steiner Valley, Tex.,

on July 9, 1884. He died February 11, 1938, at his home north of Whitney in the Fort Graham community. His mother died when he was very young. He was licensed in 1916 and was admitted on trial into the Central Texas Conference in 1918 at Mineral Wells, Bishop Ainsworth presiding. He served Aquilla Circuit, one year; Talpa, two years; Gustine, four years; Carlton, two years; Whitney Circuit, seven years. In 1936 he asked for a Sabbatical year leave of absence, at the close of which he was superannuated. In May of 1902 he was married to Miss Flaus Holt, who survives him. To them were born four children, all living: Mrs. W. T. Snell, Mrs. Jack Moore, Misses Iro and Nell Boiles. The funeral services were conducted at his home by the writer, assisted by J. W. W. Shuler, A. K. Marney, J. L. Ray, W. B. Gilleland, Paul Utley, and F. E. Weller (of the Baptist Church). His body was buried in the Fort Graham Cemetery.—W. W. Ward.

Here two girls, Sadie and Elizabeth, were born. He was admitted into the Conference in 1893 at Fort Worth, Tex., Bishop Key presiding. Two children, Nelms and Pauline, were born at Cresson. Bertie Lou was born at Grapevine. Brother Curry served the following charges: Cresson, Grapevine, Arlington, Hewitt, Salado, Abbott, Morgan, Granbury (six years), Mansfield, Burleson. Brother Curry died on June 26, 1938. The funeral services were held at Mansfield Church on June 28 by Bishop Boaz, W. B. Andrews, and A. K. Marney.—William H. Cole.

In 1905 he was transferred to the Central Texas Conference and served the following charges: Santa Anna, Winters, Couts Memorial (Weatherford), Line Street (Hillsboro), Glenwood (Fort Worth), Blanket, Hutto, and Mount Calm. He was superannuated in 1923. He moved with his family to Mineral Wells, and then to Fort Worth. On March 8, 1887, he was married to Miss Susie Skinner, who, with their two sons, Gus M. and John E. Patison, survives him. His funeral services were conducted at Highland Park Church in Fort Worth by R. B. Hooper, assisted by nine other ministers. His body was buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Fort Worth, Tex.—G. A. Lehnhoff and R. B. Hooper.

A. T. PLUNKETT, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Plunkett, was born June 15, 1887, in Thornton Tex. He died at his home in Wortham, Tex., on June 18, 1938. He was married in 1908 to Miss Bessie Lee, of Wortham, Tex. To them were born two children. The one surviving child is Miss Myrle Plunkett. In 1914 Brother Plunkett accepted a call to preach, and served as Financial Secretary for the Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, and as pastor at Cooledge and Isham's Chapel. annuated and settled at Wortham. Besides his wife and daughter, he is survived by two sisters and one brother.—S. A. Baker.

ALBERT DAVIS PORTER was born in Jonesboro, Ark., to Rev. John H. and Catherine Elizabeth Conklin Porter. His father died when he was sixteen years of age, and two years later his mother died. He attended Hendrix College, for two years. In the fall of 1898 he entered Polytechnic College and in 1902 he was graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He was admitted on trial into the Northwest Texas Conference in the fall of 1898. While a student in Polytechnic College he served Glenwood and Trinity Churches, Fort Worth. His subsequent appointments were: Blum, 1902-03; North Cleburne, 1903-04; Mount Calm, 1904-06; Hubbard, 1906-08; Elm Street, Waco, 1908-09; First Church, Waxahachie, 1909-11; Morrow Street, Waco, 1911-14; Main Street, Cleburne, 1914-17; Corsicana District, 1917-21; First Church, Hillsboro, 1921-23; Brownwood District, 1923-27; First Church, Mineral Wells, 1927-30; Waco District, 1930-34; Central Church, Fort Worth, 1934 to January 12, 1938. In 1914 he was elected Secretary of the Central Texas Conference, and served until his death. He was a delegate to the General Conferences of 1918, 1922, 1924, 1930, and 1934, and was delegate elect to the session of 1938. He was Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Weatherford College; a trustee of the Superannuate Homes; a member of the Board of Managers of the Methodist Home; President of the General Pastors' Association of Fort Worth in 1935; Grand Chaplain of the Grand Lodge of Texas A. F. & A. M., 1935; Vice-President of the Board of Managers of the Texas Pastors' School, Southern Methodist University, and a member of the faculty of the school from the day of its organization. The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by the Daniel Baker College of Brownwood, Tex., in 1925. That he had an exquisite literary taste is evident in the output of his own gifted pen. Many readers have been charmed with his The Shepherd of Beth, Stephen of Nain, The Snow-White Cross, The Fisher Lad of Galilee, Lazarus of Bethany, and The Lone Soldier (which was published in the Golden Jubilee Journal in 1916). A book of fiction entitled The Yellow Wolf lacked only the finishing touches at the time of his death. He was the composer of many poems—some of these he allowed a wider circulation by giving them to the world in papers and magazines; others he kept only for his intimate circle of friends and loved ones.—P. E. Riley.

FREDERICK OLDHAM WADDILL was born in Fayette County, Tex., on October 9, 1881, and moved with his father to Pidcoke, Coryell County, at the age of five years. He was licensed to exhort at the age of 16. For a number of years he taught in the public schools of Texas. In 1911 he was licensed to preach and was admitted on trial into the Central Texas Conference in November of that year. He served the following charges: Turnersville, three years; Copperas Cove, two years; Oglesby, three years; Bangs, two years; Palmer, two years; Bangs, four years; Eleventh Avenue, Corsicana, one year; Dawson, six years; Clifton, one year; Hubbard, one year; and was serving his second year at Groesbeck at the time of his death. Brother Waddill served his Conference as Statistical Secretary from 1923 to 1934. He was an alternate delegate to the General Conference of 1930. Brother Waddill was married to Mary Mayhew at Levita, Tex., on August 23, 1905. Four children were born to them: Turner and Eugene Waddill, Mrs. John Yates and Sue Waddill. He died on August 29, 1938, at his parsonage home at Groesbeck, Tex. The funeral services were conducted by C. R. Gray, assisted by a number of other ministers, from the Groesbeck Church on August 30, with interment at Dawson, Tex.—W. J. Mayhew.

CASPAR SMITH WRIGHT, son of John Wiley and Sarah Walker Wright, was born at White Plains, Ga., September 10, 1867. He entered the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in 1892 when he was admitted on trial into the North Georgia Conference. He was ordained deacon in 1894 by Bishop Haygood, and elder in 1896 by Bishop Wilson. He held pastorates in Georgia, Arkansas, and Missouri, before coming to Texas, where he served Trinity, El Paso, three years; First Church (Galveston), and First Church (Houston). From 1915 to 1917 he was Vice-President of Southern Methodist University. He served First Church, Austin, 1917-20; San Antonio District, 1920-24; Austin District, 1924-26; Central Church, Fort Worth, 1926-29; Weatherford and Corsicana Districts, 1930-34; First Church, Waco, 1934-36; Taylor, 1937; Fort Worth Methodist Hospital Commissioner until his death on July 4, 1938. Score, and the writer, from Central Church, Fort Worth.—Eugene B. Hawk.

Southern Methodist Yearbook For 1939

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

"Good - By — and God Bless You"

SINCE this is the last YEARBOOK of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, the caption may for its purpose be doubly appropriate.

The Editor therefore, for reasons that will be made clear, believes that the reader will pardon this very personal farewell message, written from the depths of his heart.

Although a host of men and women in many climes have influenced the Editor for better or for worse, he freely acknowledges his everlasting indebtedness to three women whose indelible influence has always been for good—his mother, his sister, his wife. Others have touched the periphery of his being; these three have been part and parcel of it. Others have stood by and counseled; these have laid bare their hearts and when necessary have wrought with their hands in helping to bring to pass things that were worth while.

The first of these a few years ago exchanged her earthly robes for a diadem in heaven; the second remains a stabilizing influence here below; the third during the closing months of 1938 fell asleep in Jesus. God kissed her pure spirit away, and she now sleeps the dreamless sleep. It is to her precious memory that this editorial is dedicated.

As a woman she and her life were kaleidoscopic:

As the youngest of eight children she was not a spoiled, but a dutiful daughter, idolized by her devoutly religious father and mother.

As a sympathetic sister she was adored by her older brothers and sister.

As a faithful friend she was bound as by golden chains to many men and women of high and low estate, without regard to color or creed.

As an amiable aunt she was loved by a dozen nieces and nephews.

As a grateful guest she was welcomed in the homes of rich and poor.

As a hospitable hostess it was her earnest desire that her guests should feel at home in her home.

As a willing worker anywhere she was ever ready to do her part in any worthy enterprise.

As an amateur artist she dipped her brush in sapphire tints and, strange to say, left as her chef d'oeuvre a moonlight scene of the Castle of Chillon surrounded by earth, lake, and sky—probably an unconscious influence of Byron or the story of Bonivard.

As a marvelous musician, with a rare touch, in her modest way she made music that thrilled many hearers.

As a dainty designer she left many exquisite pieces of her creation that testify to the excellence of her handiwork in needlecraft.

As a home-loving housekeeper she was the counterpart of the virtuous woman described by King Lemuel in the thirty-first chapter of Proverbs.

As the trusted treasurer of various benevolent societies her records were beautifully and accurately kept and were always in perfect balance.

As a soul-satisfying sweetheart and a lovely lover she was everything—and more—that her betrothed could expect or wish for.

As a bonnie bride she was attractively modest and graceful.

As a winsome wife no shadow ever crossed her pathway to cause her husband to lower an implicit and divine faith in her.

As a marvelous mother she sacrificed much for a son who now pays homage to her memory.

As a consistent Christian she put her Church and its institutions next to her home, and was never happier than when she was serving in Sunday School, Missionary Society, or wherever the children of God were endeavoring to extend His Kingdom on earth.

As a conscientious correspondent it is characteristic that her last letter, written on the eve of her translation, should have been a note expressing appreciation for some flowers.

Thinking ever of others, it is significant that, just a few hours before she went away, she arranged for the sending of a present to a young friend who was to be married a week later.

During the months of their courtship she and her fiance planned their shrine of dreams and talked much about the humble home where love was to reign supreme and where each was to think first of the other's pleasure and comfort. They agreed that if they could keep the sweet God-given faith of their youth, their achievements ought to be greater and their burdens lighter, and to the fullest they believed that God would lead them beside still waters and also in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. With these ideals they strove through their wedded days to make their home an abode of peace and joy for all who crossed its threshold.

Her married life was based on the promise, "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven."

She was therefore a firm believer in prayer, feeling assured that God would always answer earnest prayer—not always instantaneously—not perhaps as we would ask—but in His own and better way—if we ask aright.

She and her husband also were fully convinced that the power of God is sufficient for all things.

Her great and singlehearted woman's love was more than a match for her husband's courage; but for more than three and thirty years their lives in golden sequence ran.

And on that last day of her pilgrimage on earth, as her husband bade her farewell, as he supposed, for the day, she said, "Good-by—and God bless you."

But before the ninth hour of that day God called her home and she answered promptly, "Present—with the Lord." And she was here no longer, for God had taken her to live forever in the temple of His heart.

Her Bible (the one she carried at her wedding) lay at the head of her bed, and the last verses she read were: "Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures forevermore. . . . . Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on Thee, because he trusteth in Thee."

Heart of my heart, "Good-by!" until we meet again—in the morning.

Forty Questions for the Uniting Conference

What Will the Answers Be?

Strange as it may seem, there be those who really think that the Uniting Conference will be a conclave where 900 delegates will get together for a jollification meeting to celebrate the coming together into one great Church of three lesser bodies that have been separated for from 95 to 111 years, and that the hosts will return to their homes after the "tumult and the shouting dies" and leave the real work of the Conference to be done by the General and Jurisdictional Conferences that will follow shortly thereafter.

The Editor has talked with some who leaned to that way of thinking; but he lost no time in speaking his own mind in an effort to disillusion them: for this Uniting Conference is going to face a task such as no similar body of men and women has undertaken within the memory of anybody within our several communions.

Very few people outside the ranks of the Commission on Union know just exactly what is involved in the setting up of the United Church as an active working body, with all its intricate boards, committees, conferences, interests, and human and divine elements.

Much has been written; but the half has not been told concerning the ramifications of this immense organization to be known as The Methodist Church.

Dr. William P. King, the Editor of the Christian Advocate, frankly confessed that he has "a lack of clearness on some matters involved, and wrote before his style was cramped with more definite information."

Bishop John M. Moore has written much about the mechanics of the Union, and discussed entertainingly the question of "feeling out Union," but he does not throw out very much light on the vital questions involved. He asks quite a few questions and discusses them from his viewpoint, but hazards no very definite answers—perhaps for prudential reasons.

The Editor has no desire to throw sand in the eyes of Yearbook readers, but he does believe that many Methodists everywhere will be interested in learning something about some very vital questions that will have to be answered—and definitely answered—by the Uniting Conference while it is in session at Kansas City in April and May.

Here they are—forty of them:

1. What will be the Constitution of the Methodist Church?
2. Will there be a Historical Statement or a Historical Sketch in the new Discipline?
3. Will there be XXV or XXVIII Articles of Religion?
4. Will there be a Judicial Council or Judicial Conferences?
5. Will there be Missionary Bishops and Central Conference Bishops?
6. Will the General Conference meet in presidential-election years? Will it meet in even or odd years?
7. Will there be district superintendents, presiding elders, or district elders?
8. Will the preacher be pastor or preacher in charge?
9. What will become of mission traveling preachers?
10. Will the Discipline contain the Bishops' Recommendation and Greeting or the Episcopal Address?
11. Will there be Bishops or General Superintendents?
12. Will there be Epworth Leagues?
13. Will there be separate Lay Conferences?
14. One Discipline has this question and answer: "Will you wholly abstain from the use of tobacco? Answer: Yes." Will this be in the new Discipline?
15. What will be the ratio of representation in the General Conference?

16. Will there be a Board of Lay Activities or will it be the Laymen's Fellowship?

17. Will there be a Book Committee or a Board of Publication?

18. Will the salaries of Bishops be fixed by the Committee on Episcopacy or by the Book Committee?

19. Will there be a great World Service Commission?

20. Will there be a Board of Trustees or just Trustees?

21. Will it be the Board of Education or the Board of Christian Education?

22. Will there be one Order of Worship or three?

23. Will there be six or eight Restrictive Rules?

24. Will it be the Publishing House, the Book Concern, or the Board of Publication?

25. Will there be a Board of Temperance, Prohibition, and Public Morals, or merely a chapter on The Evil of Intemperance?

26. Will provision be made for Love Feasts?

27. Will there be the Address on Worldliness or merely Special Advices?

28. Will there be a Rural Work Commission or a Department of Town and Country Work?

29. Will there be a Board of Finance, a Board of Pensions and Relief, a Commission on Finance, a Board of Management of the General Superannuate Fund, or a Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund?

30. Will there be Sabbath Schools or Church Schools?

31. Will there be a separate Board of Church Extension or will it be the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension?

32. How will the missionary work be set up when the present make-up is like this: Board of Missions, Board of Foreign Missions, Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, Board of Hospitals, Homes, and Deaconess Work, Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and Woman's Home Missionary Society?

33. Will there be Ladies' Aid Societies and Woman's Missionary Societies?

34. Will there be Golden Cross or White Cross Societies?

35. Will there be Good-Will Industries?

36. Since no two chapters in the Rituals are alike, how will these be harmonized?

37. When we consider that Murphy, N. C., is nearer the capital cities of six other States than it is to Raleigh, we shudder to think of the task of the Committee on Boundaries when it attempts to set up new boundaries for some of the Conferences that now lap over State and Jurisdictional lines. What about this?

38. Will the tenure of presiding elders be limited to four years, or will it be six years, with a possible extension to eight years? If the latter, what will be the status of our elders rounding out four-year terms?

39. Will the Uniting Conference have one secretary or three?

40. Will any other officers be elected by the Conference?

Some of these questions are going to be hard to answer, difficult to solve. But they will be answered in some way agreeable to a majority of the delegates present and voting, and when the last amen is said the nine hundred will sigh a sigh of relief, close their portfolios, and return home to prepare for the first General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

Unification in Sight

April 29, 1938, was a high day in the history of Methodism, for it was on that day that the delegates to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, voted almost unanimously to adopt the Plan of Union that had already been approved by the General

Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Protestant Church in 1936. The actual vote was 434 yea and 26 nay. Only 4 potential votes were not cast. (See footnotes to the table.)

It now remains only for the Uniting Conference that will gather in Kansas City, Mo., on April 26, 1939, to carry out the mandates of the legislative bodies and consummate the union by providing for and setting up the machinery necessary to consolidate the various Boards and Agencies as may seem best to that august body.

The problems to be worked out there are many and will require the very best brains and the very best talents of the best-equipped men in the three Churches that are parties to the Union. That there will be many headaches and perhaps many heartaches along with the rejoicing at Unification is a foregone conclusion. But after the machinery is well lubricated and all the difficulties ironed out, it is to be hoped that everything in connection with this Union will be for the very best interests of the millions of members who are parties to the new contract.

We are presenting a tabulation showing the vote on the Plan of Union by Conferences and Orders, separating them into three groups: those East of the Mississippi, those West of the Mississippi, and the Foreign delegates.

It is interesting to note that no delegate west of the Mississippi River voted against the Plan of Union, no Foreign delegate voted against it, and no woman voted against it. The 26 delegates who voted against the Plan were members of 13 Conferences, all East of the Mississippi. This was a very remarkable vote and the story of its result will go down in history.

For the Plan of Methodist Union see pages 341-348 in the GENERAL MINUTES AND YEARBOOK for 1935-1936, also pages 289-298 in the Journal of the Twenty-Third General Conference.

Concerning Church Finances

In their Episcopal Address to the General Conference at Birmingham the Bishops gave expression to the following very clear and forceful statement on the subject of Church finances:

While the annual contributions of our membership aggregate $20,000,000 for the various causes of the Kingdom, at home and abroad, it must be conceded that we have not yet secured the general adoption of an efficient program of finance in the Church. The per capita giving of our membership is near the lowest among the leading denominations in America. There has been an alarming decline in all church and general welfare contributions in recent years. Since 1932, the base of the depression, Americans have increased their annual income by 61 per cent, but gifts to colleges have decreased 18 per cent, to general benevolences 29 per cent, and to churches 30 per cent in this period of time. Only 2 per cent out of the American dollar goes to religion or welfare.

There is no subject of Christian teaching about which the Church is so woefully ignorant as that of the relation of a disciple and his money. Civilization has need of many things, if it is to be truly Christian, but in no realm is there greater need of Christian principle than in the acquisition and administration of property and income. Paganism persists even in the precincts of the Christian church, and it must be dealt with as faithfully as the missionary deals with it in Asia or Africa. It is still true, as in the days of Malachi, that ignorance of God's law about money and property or obstinate refusal to practice its requirement is the explanation of spiritual leanness and the halting progress of the Kingdom of God.

Four years ago the General Conference adopted a voluntary program of finance for the churches, leaving to each Quarterly Conference, after certain suggestions of need, to determine what it would assume for the support of missions and the other causes of the Kingdom. The churches, with few exceptions, have accepted what they felt they could certainly pay—at first with the thought of a safe base from which they could easily advance—but the acceptance has become static, with but little advance in the payment thereon from year to year. The Church did make an advance in its budget benevolences of $327,426.18 in 1935, $309,688.08 in 1936, and $372,648.58 in 1937 over the last year of its assessment regime. However, we paid $1,138,536 less on our budget benevolences in 1937 than we did in 1927, and the specials in the latter year were no greater than in the former.

The Church will probably not abandon the essence of the voluntary principle for the support of its ministry and benevolences of the Kingdom, but manifestly it needs some reinforcement. The ministry must have reasonably adequate support and the benevolent budget, determined by the General and Annual Conferences to be essential to the proper maintenance of our work, ought to be regarded by the Church as its positive obligation. The General Conference should say so in unmistakable terms. Valuable work has been done by the Board of Lay Activities, Board of Missions, and others in the cultivation of this field, but present conditions require something more. We believe that the subject of finances is so important that a special Committee on Finances should be appointed who shall recommend to the General Conference ways and means of meeting the financial responsibility of the Church at this time.

Moreover, there are nearly 3,000 ministers in the Church, who are trying to serve charges, frequently of four, five, and even eight churches, requiring the maintenance of an automobile and support their families, on less than $1,000 per year. That means life at the bread line and below the minimum requisites of family culture and pastoral efficiency. In a number of Conferences efforts are being made to secure an increased minimum of support through the organization of a brotherhood that contributes a percentage of ministerial support to a common fund for the aid of the more deficient ones. These efforts are worthy of all praise and must not be abandoned until the Church can provide something better. These efforts, however, do not furnish an adequate solution of the problem. The Methodist Church has always gloried in the possession of a ministry that was willing to go forth like the early apostles, without purse or scrip, into the needy places of the world, but we cannot find great glory in a Church that is willing to let such men suffer unduly while thousands of our people revel in the luxuries of life. The Church must find a permanent solution for this problem and an underpaid ministry in this day of increasing emphasis upon a living wage and security for advancing life.

Why Do We Not Rank Higher?

Dr. Harry S. Myers, of the United Stewardship Council, in a recent tabulation of per capita giving in the churches, finds the leading givers to be:

1. The Church of the Nazarene (127,054 members) $28.02 per capita a year.
2. Reformed Church in America (240,660 members) $22.90 per year.
3. United Presbyterian (179,115 members) $22.89 per year.
4. Protestant Episcopal (234,257 members) $22.79 per year.

Giving less than $10 per capita per year are the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Disciples of Christ, some Lutheran Synods, and the Southern Baptists.

Why do the smallest denominations give most? Is there more "spirit" in a Church of 100,000 than in one of two or three millions? Someone said long ago that the little Church produced seven ministers to the big Church's one. Is faith stronger where the group is smaller?

Per Capita Giving in the Church

For our Church in the United States the average per capita contribution for all purposes in 1937 was $10.31, whereas in 1938 it dropped to $10.04—a decrease of 27 cents for every man, woman, and child in the Church.

While the amount contributed for all purposes was only slightly below last year's contributions, it appears that the large accession of new members who have not been educated to give is responsible for the per capita shrinkage. Fifteen Conferences have increased their per capita giving.

Let us take heart, strive to the uttermost of our ability to do our part toward overcoming our shortcomings, count our blessings, share generously with the Church what God gives us, and see what He will shower upon us in His own good way.

The table below indicates the fluctuations for a quadrennium, and if the reader wishes to know whether his Conference ranks above or below the present general average he can compare the several amounts below with $10.04, the average for the Church in the United States:

Temperance

THAT the 1938 General Conference was seriously opposed to the State entering the liquor business is evident from the very strong report on Temperance which was adopted unanimously, as follows:

We quote from Hidden Fangs, a pamphlet recently made available through our General Board of Lay Activities: "Before Prohibition, saloons were confined largely to the slum districts. Now they have invaded the residential districts also. They have moved from the alley to the boulevard. True, the old bar rail has vanished, but the soda fountain fixtures make a good substitute. The saloon has changed its clothes, but not its character. It is still the fountain of death and the gate of destruction."

We were promised by the advocates of repeal that the saloon should never return, that the bootlegger would soon be but a memory, and that drinking and drunkenness would decline if John Barleycorn should be stripped of his stripes and be allowed to dress in the honest garb of respectable citizenship. It is all too evident now that the advocates of legalized liquor never intended to keep a single promise of sobriety or protection or decency, but wanted only the chance to vend their wares, and to satisfy the thirst of those who were already trained in the drink habit, and to allure to their trade a vast army of young men and women, boys and girls, who should pour into their coffers the millions that they craved.

The gospel of Jesus Christ is a gospel of salvage and salvation. The liquor traffic is an agency of destruction and damnation. These two forces march in opposite directions, they are as far apart as the two poles. As a church, we cannot keep company with Christ and give comfort to the agents of evil. Upon this rock we must take our stand and let the world know that we will not compromise.

In order to fight the evil influence of the liquor interests and to promote temperance, we make the following recommendations:

1. That we continue to put on temperance programs at each annual conference; that an outstanding speaker be procured and that full publicity be given to the program; this to be arranged by the Bishop and Conference Lay Leader before the meeting of the Annual Conference.

2. That a special temperance program be put on at each District Conference under the supervision of the Presiding Elder and District Lay Leader, and that due emphasis be given to the liquor problem, especially as it affects our young people.

3. That all our pastors be urged to continue to preach special sermons on temperance and the evils of the drink habit, as well as the curse of the sale of intoxicating liquors and that they inform themselves so that they may educate, as well as denounce.

4. That the pastors of all our churches be requested not to nominate for membership on the Board of Stewards persons who drink intoxicating liquors, or who are known to be in sympathy with the liquor traffic.

5. That influence be brought to bear in every way possible to prevent the untruthful and pernicious advertisement of liquors; and that our people who believe in sobriety and decency make known to the newspapers, magazines, and other advertising agencies in no uncertain manner their objections to the advertisement of any and all kinds of intoxicating liquors, and as far as possible give support and encouragement to those newspapers and magazines which refuse liquor advertisements.

6. We commend the pamphlet entitled Hidden Fangs published by our General Board of Lay Activities and recommend its continued use. We congratulate our Church papers and our faithful pastors in their courageous stand on temperance. We commend our General Board of Christian Education and our Methodist Publishing House for the excellent literature they are giving to our people on temperance. We urge that every member of our great Church loyally support our Pastors, Church Editors, and others who are fighting for the cause of temperance and sobriety.

7. We wish to go on record as opposed to any State going into the liquor business. If the poison must be legally sold, let it be done by selfish men who are willing to barter away the lives and souls of their fellow beings for money, but do not make our beloved commonwealths partners to such a travesty on good morals and decency.

8. Recognizing that the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Anti-Saloon League of America are the two great national organizations co-operating with the churches to oppose and destroy the intoxicating liquor traffic, we commend them for their useful activities and recommend that wherever desired, the several Annual Conferences appoint representatives to work with these worthy organizations; and we urge our pastors and Churches to co-operate for the purpose of opposing and destroying the hurtful traffic in intoxicating beverages.

The Presiding Eldership

OUR people are still interested in the 1934 law governing the appointment of presiding elders, which has changed the normal course for quite a few preachers in charge and some preachers who had almost come to be looked upon as professional elders.

Here are the

Women in the Uniting Conference

WOMEN have been elected as delegates or alternates to the Uniting Conference from thirty-four Annual Conferences. Including the one woman ex-officio member, five Conferences will each have two women delegates. The total number of women delegates is thirty-three and the number of alternates is twenty-four. With this large representation of the women leaders of our Church we may be assured that they will make themselves heard and felt concerning questions near to their hearts that may arise in the Conference. No women were elected from the Arizona, Belgian, Cuba, Illinois, Northwest, Pacific, South Carolina, and Upper South Carolina Conferences. THE UNITING CONFERENCE

KANSAS CITY, "THE HEART OF AMERICA," INVITES YOU

BY REV. JOHN C. GLENN, D.D.

Former Presiding Elder, Kansas City District

KANSAS CITY is one of America's most beautiful and interesting conference and convention cities. It has a rich, cultural background as evidenced by its educational institutions, its art gallery, and symphony orchestra. The beauty of its parks, boulevards, and residential sections is world-renowned. Its map is dotted with points of interest and, to the visitor, it offers unlimited sources of entertainment and recreation. Kansas City's churches are outstanding—it is truly a city of fine churches, alive to their high and holy task of making of people loyal, aggressive citizens, peace-loving and neighborly. The ministers of Greater Kansas City are accorded every courtesy and consideration to which their office entitles them. They have perfect entree into every useful field, agency, and institution. The great metropolitan daily papers, the radio broadcasting stations, and every other facility of the city are available to the ministers and their churches. Moreover, Kansas City is one of the most truly "American cities" in the United States. Approximately ninety-five per cent of the citizens of Kansas City are American-born. So Kansas City not only has a rich cultural background, but a great religious background with a tradition going back to the early days when merchandise of all kinds was unloaded from steamboats at old Westport Landing.

To conferences and conventions of all sizes Kansas City affords a rare combination of central location, ready accessibility, splendid hotel accommodations, unusual auditorium facilities, recreation possibilities, and warm hospitality that make it truly an outstanding and most acceptable convention city.

Kansas City's central location in the heart of America places no penalty of excessive travel and expense on any delegation, making possible a maximum attendance from all sections. It is a natural gateway to the West, key city of the great Southwest.

Connected by twelve trunk lines and thirty-five subsidiary lines with all principal cities of the country, served directly by transcontinental airways, and being at the center of a web of paved highways, Kansas City is truly accessible. This combination of central location and ready accessibility is a positive guarantee of a well-attended convention or conference.

Kansas City hotel accommodations are suitable for conferences of all types and are adequate for the largest. Approximately five thousand rooms are available in downtown hotels and two thousand more in outlying apartment hotels. Many of these insure guest comfort by offering air-conditioned sleeping rooms, also air-conditioned meeting space, coffee shops, and private dining rooms. Each of the larger hotels is thoroughly experienced in handling convention activities. Rates throughout are extremely moderate and services are the finest.

Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium was built after a thorough study of the requirements of practically all the country's largest conventions and trade shows and was designed to meet those requirements. It is modern and adaptable throughout; its major units are air-conditioned, and it is located in the heart of downtown Kansas City within two blocks of more than 3,000 hotel rooms. The facilities of the auditorium comprise eight meeting halls with seating capacities of 250 to 14,000, twenty-one committee rooms with seating capacities of 25 to 100, and 150,000 square feet of highly desirable exhibit space. The building is equipped to give complete convention service and is manned by a competent, experienced staff.

In brief, Kansas City offers the Uniting Conference: A strategic location; unusual accessibility; the nation's finest auditorium; exceptional hotel accommodations; and the cordial hospitality of "America's most American city."

Kansas City, Kansas

Kansas City, Kansas, is a city of 125,000 population immediately adjoining Kansas City, Missouri, on the west. It is the home of Fairfax airport, major packing plants, large grain storage elevators, soap manufacturing establishments, one of the country's newest and most up-to-date high schools, and the Kansas State School for the Blind. Those interested in Indian lore will want to visit Huron Cemetery, ancient burial ground of the Wyandotte Indians, whose plot now occupies an area in the very heart of the business district between Sixth and Seventh Streets on Minnesota Avenue.

Denominations and Churches

The local Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations have extensively advertised Kansas City as a great business center. It is notable for its business enterprise, its material resources, and its cultural advantages. Kansas City is also outstanding in its churches and its philanthropic and character-building agencies. The metropolitan area of Kansas City has 327 churches. This, of course, is the Protestant group and includes the negro churches with eight different denominations represented. In addition, we have Christian Science, Latter-Day Saints, Unity, and a number of "holiness" groups and unaffiliated churches. We have one of the most active local Council of Churches in the United States. The writer has served in several capacities in the work of the Council of Churches. It was also his privilege to serve as First Vice-President of the Council of Churches and a member of the cabinet and executive committee. Therefore, out of this wide opportunity for contacts with all denominational leaders, we can say with authority that Kansas City Protestantism is a unit. There is cohesiveness of purpose, oneness of spirit, and unity of action. During the three years and more that the writer spent in Kansas City as presiding elder and official in the Council of Churches, never once did an ugly spirit break out in any of the denominational meetings. In Greater Kansas City the ministers stand shoulder to shoulder. In other words, it is hearty co-operation and not dignified acquiescense.

The Uniting Conference

When the Uniting Conference of the three Methodist Churches convenes here on April 26, 1939, delegates and visitors will have the pleasure of assembling in one of the finest convention halls in the country, Kansas City's new Municipal Auditorium. In the arena will be held the main conference sessions. In the exhibit hall will be book, missions, and other church exhibits. The Music Hall, which seats more than 2,500 people, will doubtless be used for special religious services. Lectures will be given in the Little Theater, a most ornate hall. Lectures will be given in some of the smaller rooms also. Some rooms will be used for devotional services. And conference committees will keep the score of committee rooms occupied most of the time.

Desks for Delegates

Arrangements will be made for seating the delegates, using individual combination desks and chairs. This will give each delegate an individual chair-desk twenty-six inches long. There will be nine hundred delegates, four hundred each from the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and one hundred from the Methodist Protestant Church. Adequate public speaking facilities will be available, with microphones stationed at convenient points on the conference floor for the use of delegates who desire to ask questions of the Chair.

The Committee on General Arrangements has been set up and approximately a score of committees will be formed. Before leaving Kansas City the writer had no little part in shaping up the general matters and in helping form the local Committee on Arrangements.

Kansas City is not inept at handling large conventions and associations. Among those held here in the last two years are the American Medical Association, the American Bar Association, the American Bankers' Association, the National Safety Congress, and many trade associations.

Kansas City will welcome with open arms this great body of religious leaders.

The Committee on Arrangements has been named and organized as follows:

Sherwood Eddy Speaking

Here are five excellent principles for the guidance of Christian living enunciated by Mr. Eddy. They are quite worth our study.

1. To live simply and sacrificially, avoiding waste and luxury—to share all with my fellow men. To apply the Golden Rule in all my relationships.

2. To practice brotherhood toward all. To seek justice for every man without distinction of caste or color.

3. To make peace when there is strife; to seek to outlaw war, substituting a positive program of international justice and good will.

4. To overcome evil with good; to test the evils of the social order by the principle of love. To endeavor to replace them by the constructive building of the new social order, the Kingdom of God on earth.

5. To seek a new discovery of God, which will release within my life new springs of power such as men in the past have experienced when they rediscovered the religion of Jesus.

RULES OF ORDER, GENERAL CONFERENCE OF 1938

Rule 1. The daily meeting shall be from 8:30 A.M. to 12:30 P.M. until otherwise ordered by majority vote.

Rule 2. No alternate shall have the privilege of membership until his name has been announced.

Rule. 3. The Secretaries shall constitute the committee for distributing the Episcopal Address, and the adoption of their report shall be notification to the committees.

Rule 4. The members of any special committee shall be named by the Bishop presiding when the committee is ordered, unless otherwise directed by the Conference.

Rule 5. After religious service, the regular meeting shall be conducted in the following order:

(1) For the first two days only, calling the roll of members and alternates.

(2) The approval of the Journal of the previous meeting or meetings.

(3) Report of the Committee on Privileges and Introductions.

(4) All appeals, memorials, petitions, and resolutions proposing changes in the Discipline shall be placed in the hands of the Secretary by 9:30 A.M., and the Secretary shall proceed at once through one of his assistants to place them in the hands of the secretaries of the several committees to which they are referred.

(5) For the first five daily sessions, Sunday excluded, reports from commissions, boards, and connectional officers.

(6) Reports from special committees.

(7) Calendar.

(8) Nonconcurrent Calendar.

Rule. 6. A motion to adjourn shall not be debatable, and shall be in order at any time except (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a vote is being taken; (3) when the pending or previous question has been ordered and voting under it has not been completed; (4) when no business has been transacted since the motion to adjourn was voted down.

Rule 7. Reports, resolutions, appeals, petitions, memorials, and substitutes, together with amendments proposing changes in the Discipline, shall be written and in triplicate and have written on the back of them the subject to which they relate, the Conference, Church, or names of two individuals presenting the paper, and committee to which it is referred.

Rule 8. (a) Reports from the Committee on Episcopacy approving by name the character of the bishops, and making apportionments to the bishops and to the widows and orphans of deceased bishops, are final.

(b) At the close of the daily meetings of the several standing committees the chairman and secretary of each committee shall prepare the report of the action of the committee on all memorials, resolutions, etc., proposing changes in the Discipline in quadruplicate and hand them at once to the Secretary of the General Conference, or someone designated by him to receive them at his office at Tutwiler Hotel. The Secretary shall enter the several reports on the Calendar in the order in which they reach him and shall hand to the editor of the Daily Advocate one copy of the Calendar to be published in the issue of the Advocate the following day. Reports from committees (and minority reports) recommending concurrence in proposed changes in the Discipline shall give chapter, section, and paragraph to be affected, and the language as it will read when adopted.

(c) Reports from committees, and all other papers which propose an alteration in the Restrictive Rules of the Church, shall state the alteration proposed to be made, and the form of the motion shall be: "Will the General Conference recommend to the Annual Conferences the change indicated above?"

(d) The adoption of the report recommending concurrence shall constitute legal enactment.

(e) A committee's report recommending nonconcurrence with no minority report shall be kept upon a separate calendar, and the said calendar shall be taken up when the regular calendar is completed.

(f) Every committee of the General Conference is hereby authorized to delegate to the chairman and secretary of the committee the duty of preparing and presenting to the General Conference the action taken by the committee on any given subject, and every committee is also authorized to grant to a minority of the committee the right to draft and to present to the General Conference a minority report without reading the same before the full committee, provided the substance of the said minority report has been stated to the committee.

(g) Whenever in any committee any change in the Discipline is adopted which will affect the work of any of the Boards of the Church whose work is under consideration by one of the standing committees, there shall be a Committee of Conference composed of three members from each standing committee involved appointed by the Chairman of each committee; which Committee of Conference shall consider said proposed legislation and report back to their respective committees before any report on the proposed legislation is made to the General Conference.

(h) When memorials or resolutions are referred to the several committees by the General Conference it shall be understood that the whole question with which the memorials or resolutions have to do is referred to the committees, and the committees may concur, nonconcur, or, rejecting all the papers referred to them, recommend such action as they may consider wise in the premises.

(i) When a memorial has by mistake been referred to the wrong committee, the chairman shall be instructed to pass it to the proper committee without returning it to the Conference.

Rule 9. The bishop presiding shall be the legal president of the Conference. He shall decide points of order raised by members, and shall rule on questions of order not raised by members, as he deems necessary to conform to these Rules of Order, subject, in both cases, to an appeal to the Conference by any member with a second, which appeal shall be decided by a vote without debate, except that the appellant and the chairman shall each have five minutes for a statement. A tie vote in the case of an appeal shall sustain the Chair.

Rule 10. When the chairman stands at his place and calls the Conference to be in order, no member shall speak, address the chair, or stand while the chairman stands.

Rule 11. (a) A member shall not speak, make a motion, or offer a paper without first having the floor, which shall be given by the chairman recognizing him. When he is recognized by the Chair, he shall immediately announce his name and the Conference from which he comes.

(b) A member who has the floor may not be interrupted without his consent, except to call him to order, to raise a question of general privilege, to announce the time for a special order, or to correct misrepresentation.

(c) No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor; nor more than twice on the same subject under the same motion; nor longer than ten minutes unless his time be extended by the Conference.

Rule 12. The main proposition shall be opened to debate under the following motions: To adopt; to commit with instructions; to adopt a substitute; and to postpone indefinitely.

Rule 13. Subsidiary motions shall have the following order of precedence: (1) To lay on the table; (2) the pending question; (3) the previous question; (4) to postpone to a definite time; (5) to commit; (6) to postpone indefinitely; (7) to amend.

Rule 14. A substitute shall consist of a minority report, or a resolution, and the motion to adopt it shall be a rival principal question, in order while an amendment to the principal proposition is pending. To substitute shall require a motion to adopt and shall be subject to amendment the same as the principal question, after which the principal proposition shall be subject to amendment, an amendment to an amendment being allowed. After amendments have been made, or if no amendments are made, the vote shall be taken, first on adopting the substitute, and if adopted, it shall be final action of the Conference on the matter.

Rule 15. A subsidiary motion may be laid on the table without carrying any other with it.

Rule 16. (a) A motion for the pending question shall be decided without debate; and if adopted, the pending subsidiary question shall be put to a vote without further debate.

(b) A motion for the previous question shall be decided without debate; and if adopted, all motions before the Conference shall be put to a vote in their order without debate, except that in the case of the report from a committee, the chairman, or other representative of the committee, shall have the right to a closing speech in support of the report.

Rule 17. To reconsider shall be in order at any time after the vote desired to be reconsidered on the day the vote was taken or immediately after the approval of the Journal at the next daily meeting, and shall be moved by a member who voted with the prevailing side. After reconsideration has been ordered, the question shall stand as it was just before the vote reconsidered was taken, but divested of the pending or previous question if either has been ordered.

Rule 18. (a) Only members within the bar of the Conference when the vote is taken shall be entitled to vote.

(b) Voting shall be by acclamation or a show of hands, but any member may demand a division.

(c) A majority of those voting, a quorum being present, shall decide all questions except the call for the ayes and nays, which shall be ordered by one-fifth of those voting; and it shall require a two-thirds majority, a quorum being present, to amend or suspend the rules of order, to object to the consideration of a special order, or to consider a special order before the set time, and to propose or to ratify a change in the Constitution of the Church.

(d) An amendment to a proposed change in the Constitution of the Church shall be adopted by a majority.

Rule 19. The Secretary shall keep a chronological record of orders of the day, of reports of committees, under paragraph (b) of Rule 8, and of reports placed on record by vote. This record shall be called the Calendar, and the matter of business placed on it shall be considered in order, unless by a vote of a majority an item be taken up out of its order.

Rule 20. No member, unless unavoidably hindered by sickness, or otherwise, from being present, shall absent himself from the sessions of the Conference without leave.

Rule 21. These Rules of Order may be amended or changed by a two-thirds majority; but no change or amendment shall be in order unless the same is proposed in writing and has been referred to the Committee on Rules, which shall report thereon not later than the next day.

Rule 22. In all cases not specified by these Rules "Robert's Rules of Order" shall be considered authority.

Ratio of Representation

1846—One member of the General Conference for every fourteen members (preachers in full connection) of each Annual Conference.

1858—One for every seventeen members of each Annual Conference.

1870—One clerical member for every twenty-eight members (counting preachers in full connection and lay delegates together) of each Annual Conference, and an equal number of lay members.

1878—One clerical member for every thirty-six members of each Annual Conference, and an equal number of lay members.

1894—One clerical member for every forty-eight members of each Annual Conference, and an equal number of lay members.

In 1932 the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church fixed the ratio at sixty members of each Annual Conference.

Railroad Rates and Information

West of the Mississippi first-class round-trip tickets with a thirty-day limit are available daily, based on a fare and a half for the round trip. In the "Southeastern" territory, now known as the "Southern" territory, the daily round-trip first-class tickets are limited to six months.

In the Eastern territory the rate is double the one-way fare, no reduction being allowed for round-trip tickets.

Lay delegates who purchase round-trip tickets from the Eastern territory should specify that they will attend the Uniting Conference at Kansas City. Round-trip tickets will then be furnished at double the one-way fares from their home, or starting point, to the gateway (Washington, Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, or Chicago) plus a fare-and-a-half rate from the gateway to Kansas City.

Lay delegates in the Southeast may purchase through round-trip tickets from starting point to Kansas City, the rate being based on their travel in the Southeast to the gateway (Memphis, St. Louis, or New Orleans), plus the portion of the round-trip rate in the West described above.

Clergy rates are uniformly half-rate reduction in each territory. Clergy permits may be used interchangeably between the Southern and Western territories. Therefore, the holder of a Southern clergy permit need not buy a Western clergy permit. Holders of Eastern clergy permits need not buy Western clergy permits, because the railroads in the Eastern territory have agreed to sell through to Kansas City and back on the Eastern clergy permits, on account of the Uniting Conference.

One-way or round-trip tickets may be purchased from one territory to another at the starting point. The Eastern territory has waived its rule for individual tickets, which requires repurchase at each gateway, if and when purchasing this ticket the purchaser mentions that he is en route to the Uniting Conference.

Information regarding rail rates and routes will be furnished upon inquiry by Rev. W. M. Cassetty, Jr., Executive Secretary, Transportation Bureau, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, at 810 Broadway, Nashville, Tenn.

SOME DELEGATES AND THEIR CLERICAL KINSMEN

"We be brethren"

THESE kinsmen in our Connectional ranks—they come trooping. And what a wondeful tribe they are! We meet them everywhere—and always they have a word of cheer, a smile, something nice to say about somebody (some even condescend to speak kindly of the YEARBOOK), or perchance some gospel to relate concerning recent souls that have been garnered into God's spiritual granary.

And, as you read over the interesting list, note how these kinsfolk live everywhere—not all in any circumscribed area.

And again, will some obliging exegete, for the illumination of the Editor and others of like density of mind, explain for us in this connection the apparently screened meaning of the verse, "God setteth the solitary in families"?

PASTIMES OF OUR UNITING CONFERENCE FAMILY

What a variety of recreations and pastimes our preachers and laymen indulge in! And not all these recreations are for the sake of sport only—some are really profitable. Some are money-savers, albeit they may not be money-getters—but what's the difference? If you raise and use five dollars' worth of garden truck, have you not earned the amount involved?

The man who preaches spiritual sermons to his laymen on Sunday and plays wholesome games with them on Monday is likely to get a little closer to them than the preacher who holds himself aloof and abides in his minaret or cloisters himself in his library. It may be true that more good sermons are gleaned in the fields or inspired on the golf course than are harvested from the writings of average authors.

And again: all preaching and no play may cause placid pulpiteering to pall on particular professionals and peaceful pillars of the parish in the pews.

SOME UNITING CONFERENCE BIRTHDAYS

If tomorrow is your friend's birthday, send a greeting today

"Believing, hear what you deserve to hear:
Your birthday as my own to me is dear.
Blest and distinguished days which we should prize
The first, the kindest bounty of the skies.
But yours gives most; for mine did only lend
Me to the world; yours gave to me a friend."

FAVORITE HYMNS AND TEXTS

IN this list 169 clerical delegates to the Uniting Conference have named their favorite hymns and texts. They cover a wide range of hymns and of texts.

The most popular hymn is No. 209, "Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound," with others following respectively, as follows:

148. "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross."
204. "Rock of Ages."
318. "O Love That Wilt Not Let Me Go."
338. "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."
164. "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name."
220. "Majestic Sweetness Sits Enthroned."
259. "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee."
287. "A Charge to Keep I Have."
315. "How Firm a Foundation."

Of the favorite texts, as in previous issues of the YEARBOOK, John 3: 16 leads all the rest, this time with 22 popular votes. Other well-liked texts are: Philippians 4: 19; John 7: 17; 10: 10; 12: 32; Romans 8: 28; 2 Timothy 1: 12. The texts are selected from two books of the Old Testament and twenty books of the New Testament. Fifty-seven are from the book of John alone.

It is certain that such a distinguished body of preachers should be able to preach illuminating sermons from texts like these.

A Wesley Doxology

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, One in Three,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall forever be.

PRE-MINISTERIAL OCCUPATIONS OF DELEGATES

THE Editor acknowledges with chagrin that he laughed audibly when one of our Bishops remarked in his presence that the reason there are "so many no-account preachers is the sort of laymen we have to make them out of."

Be that as it may, we have here a remarkably vivid exhibit showing what more than one hundred of our ministerial delegates did before they became pronounced followers of the lowly Nazarene.

And let us remember also that Jesus was a carpenter, Peter was a fisherman, Matthew a taxgatherer, Paul a tent-maker—and so on down to the present day those who are called to preach the gospel are lifted up from some so-called secular work to that of the higher ministry.

Our preachers come from many walks of life; but they are more humanly fitted for their work now because they know from experience how better to meet their fellow men on their own plane.

FAVORITE BOOKS OF THESE OUR DELEGATES

"Till I come, give attendance to reading."

WE are fortunate to be able to let our readers know the favorite books of more than two hundred delegates to the great Uniting Conference. Although it is conceded that the Bible is the most popular book in existence, it is clear from the following presentation that our Methodist leaders, both clerical and lay, are by no means men and women of one book. It is illuminating to glance over these titles and note the wide range of tastes: Allegory, biography, essays, fiction, poetry, psychology, sermons, and much else.

Many of these books are such as have stood the test of time; others are tried and true Cokesbury Good Books. We record with mental disquietude that no delegate felt constrained to acknowledge that this YEARBOOK is his vade mecum.

John Wesley Speaking

Slovenliness is no part of religion; neither this (1 Pet. 3: 3, 4), nor any text of Scripture, condemns neatness of apparel; certainly this is a duty, not a sin; "cleanliness is, indeed, next to godliness."

Passion and prejudice govern the world only under the name of reason.

Though I am always in haste, I am never in a hurry.

If thy heart is as my heart, give me thy hand.

The best of all is, God is with us.

The world is my parish.

CHURCHES CONTRIBUTING LIBERALLY FOR GENERAL AND CONFERENCE WORK

WE are presenting a table showing the number of members, the salaries paid, and the amounts contributed for General and Conference Work by churches that pay $2,000 or more for these causes. They are graded according to the amounts contributed. There are 134 of these churches and the total amount contributed by them for these benevolences is $400,214. Of these churches, five contribute for the General and Conference Work more than they pay their pastors: Centenary, Winston-Salem; Wesley Memorial, High Point; West Market Street, Greensboro; First Church, Charlotte; First Church, Fort Worth. All others pay salaries in excess of the amounts paid for the benevolences. Although there are approximately 17,000 congregations in the Connection, these 134 churches pay for the benevolences about one-fifth as much as all the others combined.

DEGREES CONFERRED ON SOUTHERN METHODISTS

"If honor calls, where'er she points the way, the sons of honor follow and obey"

THAT the people called Methodists have no notion of being satisfied with an eighth-grade education is evidenced by the large number of academic and honorary degrees that are conferred on them year after year by institutions of higher learning.

While all those upon whom these degrees have been conferred feel themselves greatly honored, be it remembered that a degree judiciously conferred should be an honor to him (the college) that confers as well as to him that receives. An extraordinarily worthy man or woman will be a walking advertisement for any institution—school, Church, club, or business enterprise.

As a matter of common knowledge, there are today in our country many men who are much more widely known than the institutions from which they graduated. These men are of course exceptional, but they have mostly worked their way up through many difficulties.

In the list below we have named Southern Methodists who have been honored with Doctors' degrees only, except some Masters' and Bachelors' degrees pertaining to the work of the Church.

The names of institutions granting the degrees are printed in italics.

APPOINTMENTS THREESCORE YEARS AGO

"With long life will I satisfy him."

IN the appointments for the year 1879 (sixty years ago) will be found the names of sixty preachers who still live and whose names are on our Conference rolls, although many have transferred from the Conferences in which they originally held their membership. In the appointments given here will be found the names of two of our beloved retired Bishops.

Our readers in all walks of life will do well to scan these appointments and acquaint themselves with the names of our heroes who have fought so long and so valiantly in their effort to hold high the standard of the Church, and to serve the world for Christ. It will also be interesting for the brethren who have served so long to look over the list, and renew their acquaintance with the men who were their contemporaries in the early years of their ministry.

The names and present addresses of all these veterans are recorded in the Directory of Traveling Ministers to be found elsewhere under this cover.

The preachers whose names are marked with an asterisk (*) have been on the rolls sixty-five years or more, praise the Lord.

Hearty greetings to all these brethren, with prayers that God's richest blessings may be upon each and all.

OUR ASSEMBLIES

Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly

IN 1936 the property of the Lake Junaluska Assembly was deeded to Edwin D. Mouzon, Paul B. Kern, and W. A. Lambeth, Trustees, and their successors in trust for the sole use and benefit of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, upon certain terms and conditions that were set out in the deed. There was no encumbrance on the property and the General Conference in 1938 confirmed the nomination of the fifteen trustees named below:

For eight years: E. A. Cole, Charlotte, N. C.; J. B. Ivey, Charlotte, N. C.; C. C. Norton, Spartanburg, S. C.; T. B. Stackhouse, Columbia, S. C.; Secretary of Board of Christian Education, Ex Officio; Secretary of Board of Missions, Ex Officio; Secretary of Board of Lay Activities, Ex Officio; Bishop in Charge of Western North Carolina Conference, Ex Officio.

For four years: Bishop W. W. Peele, Bishop Paul B. Kern; H. A. Dunham, Asheville, N. C.; W. S. F. Tatum, Hattiesburg, Miss.; L. W. Wells, Richmond, Va.; W. P. Few, Durham, N. C.; W. A. Lambeth, Winston-Salem, N. C.

During the past five years many improvements have been made, one of which is in connection with the nine-hole golf course, which is in excellent condition. A recreational center for young people has been established, a new bath house erected, the roads improved, and the water system increased.

The Lake Junaluska Methodist Assembly is in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, twenty-eight miles from Asheville and three miles from Waynesville. The altitude of the Assembly Grounds is 2,650 feet above sea level. Within a radius of fifty miles there are more than fifty peaks of five thousand or more feet above sea level. The Great Smoky Mountain National Park is not far from Lake Junaluska and a road leading into the western entrance passes near the Assembly Grounds.

The summer climate of Western North Carolina is one of its greatest attractions. The days are warm and pleasant, but there is rarely a night during the summer when it is not necessary to sleep under heavy blankets. The average temperature for July is 70 and for August 69.

The official season at Junaluska is from June 1 to September 15. The Assembly coöperates with Duke University, and the General Boards and Commissions of the Church, in holding summer schools, conferences, institutes, camps for boys and girls, and general meetings. Among the recreational advantages are golf, boating, fishing, horseback riding, mountain hiking, tennis, etc. The lake covers two hundred and fifty acres of land and is stocked with bass, bream, and trout. Thirteen hotels and boarding houses provide entertainment at reasonable rates.

Western Methodist Assembly

MOUNT SEQUOYAH is nestled in the heart of the Ozarks, and overlooks the city of Fayetteville, Ark., where the State University is located. With an elevation of 1,722 feet, health, scenic, recreational, educational, and worship advantages are featured during the summer season. These advantages are carried on by the Assembly over a property tract of 200 acres, with hilltops, beautiful springs, mineral water well, tourist camp, cottages, library, cafeteria, drug store, bookstore, dormitories, chapel, Parker Hall, Woman's Missionary Building, athletic field, and children's playground. All guests have access at reduced prices to our city's new golf course and swimming pool.

The Assembly is owned and controlled by fifteen trustees chosen from the coöperating Annual Conferences—all the Conferences in Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana, and New Mexico. The immediate management is in charge of a superintendent, who is elected annually. The officers are: Bishop Paul B. Kern, President; A. C. Millar, Vice President; H. U. Campbell, Secretary; George Vaughn, Treasurer; S. M. Yancey, Superintendent.

Mount Sequoyah is an ideal location for Chautauqua, musical, educational, recreational, and worship programs presented by the Assembly in coöperation with the General Boards and Commissions and Conference Boards of the Church. The program will open there in June and continue until September 1.

For any information regarding Mount Sequoyah, write S. M. Yancey, Fayetteville, Ark.

Stalemating God

STALEMATING God is the rather impressive phrase used by a correspondent in The Presbyterian Tribune, New York, to express his opinion of the proposed measure for the retirement of Presbyterian ministers at the age of seventy. To this graphic phrase he adds, "It is not ethical, it is illogical, unconstitutional and not spiritual." It seems that that church has a law retiring the heads of Executive Boards also. The writer concludes by the assertion that he feels that the "overture" is a violation of the Constitution of the United States as to religious freedom, "since it puts restrictions on one's manner of serving God."

THE EPISCOPACY

Our Bishops

Bishops are elected by and are amenable to the General Conference. Their duties are: To preside in the General, Annual, and District Conferences, to fix the appointments of the preachers in the Annual Conferences; to grant leave of absence to preachers under certain conditions; to choose the presiding elders, and fix their stations; to consecrate bishops and ordain elders and deacons; to decide questions of law in the regular business of an Annual or District Conference; to travel through the presiding elders' districts which may be included in their Episcopal Districts, etc. The College of Bishops holds two regular meetings each year, in May and December, presided over by the bishops in the order of seniority, each bishop serving from the close of one meeting to the close of the next. The Secretary is elected quadrennially at the regular meeting first succeeding the General Conference. The Committee on Assignments is composed of five bishops, "in succession to the five that have just served, and the committeemen hold office for twelve months, to fill any possible vacancies."

The Seals of the Bishops

From time immemorial, in Egypt, in Palestine, in Persia, in Europe—aye, even in the United States of America—the scarab, the signet-ring, or just the seal as we know it today, has been regarded as an emblem of authority. Indeed, the seal is mentioned specifically in a dozen books of the Bible, and even today in some countries of the East such great importance is attached to seals that no document is regarded as authentic without one.

In our own country in this good day it is probably true that the best-known seal is that in common use by notaries public. This, however, is beside the point. That most of our bishops have seals with distinctive devices and mottoes is a matter of fact; but, aside from traveling and local preachers who possess ordination parchments, it is doubtful if a handful of Methodists ever saw one or heard of such a device.

All the seals that we have seen are circular in shape, and each has an outer and an inner scroll.

Bishop Candler's motto is "Separated unto the gospel of God." His initials "W. A. C.," appear in the center in large script.

Bishop Denny's seal has in the circle the words "Jesus Christ, the Saviour, Son of God." In the center are to be found, in three parallel lines, his name, "Collins Denny," the picture of a fish, and the Greek word Ἰχθύς. Bishop Denny says: "The early Christians used the fish as a sign of recognition. Each letter of the Greek word for fish—and I have used the Greek on the seal—stands for a word which in order is translated on the seal. You will find that sign of the fish most interesting to look into. There has been much written on it."

Bishop John M. Moore's motto is "Via, Veritas, Vita," and the words "Methodist Episcopal Church, South,". also appear in the circle. In the center in large letters are his initials, "J. M. M." Concerning this seal Bishop Moore writes: "There is nothing specific or historic about it. The motto, 'Via, Veritas, Vita,' the three Latin words for 'The Way, the Truth, the Life,' I chose as expressive of my life motto."

Bishop Darlington's motto is "Preach the Word," which appears in the circle with the words, "Methodist Episcopal Church, South." His initials, "U. V. W. D.," appear in the center in large skeleton letters, the first two above the others.

Bishop Du Bose's seal has the words "Methodist Episcopal Church, South," and his name, "H. M. Du Bose," in the circle. A Latin cross is in the center, the letter "I" appearing at the top of the supporting beam, while "H" and "S" are at the left and right ends of the horizontal beam. Bishop Du Bose advises us that his seal was designed by his son.

Bishop Ainsworth's motto is "Our sufficiency is of God." His initials, "W. N. A.," appear in the center.

For his seal Bishop Dobbs has in the circle the words "Methodist Episcopal Church, South," and a six-pointed star. In the center are his initials, "H. M. D,," in large letters.

Bishop Boaz's motto is 'The world is my parish." His initals, "H. A. B.," appear in the center, with ornaments above and below.

Bishop Arthur J. Moore's seal has the words "Methodist Episcopal Church, South," and his initials, "A. J. M.," on the outer circle, with a beautiful cross in the center, surrounded by the text, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ." He says: "I chose this text of scripture because it seems to express better than any other I know the central business of a minister's life. Mr. Moffatt translates this text to read: 'For I am proud of the gospel of Christ.' To be the messenger of God's voice is the biggest business I know in heaven or on earth. I covet nothing greater than the consciousness of being a faithful gospel preacher."

Bishop Kern's motto is, "To Live Is Christ," which appears with his initials, "P. B. K.," in a circle. In the center is the outline of a botonée cross. He says: "The quotation is a part of Paul's statement, 'For me to live is Christ.' This I consider the heart of the whole Christian matter. To live like Christ and let Christ live again in us is the goal of every Christian."

Bishop Peele's motto is, "Approved unto God," in the circle, while his initials, "W. W. P.," are in the center. He writes: "I selected these words with the feeling that the minister is accountable unto God who has called him and sent him forth to bear the message of salvation. His greatest joy is to feel that he is approved by the One in whose service he is engaged."

Bishop Purcell's motto is, "To Me to Live Is Christ, and to Die Is Gain," while his monogram, "CP," appears in the center. He says: "Many years ago I read a sermon by Dr. G. Campbell Morgan on Paul's Estimate of Life based on Philippians 1: 21, 'For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.' The passage became luminous with new meaning to me, and I chose it as the motto of my ministry. Naturally I chose it for my seal."

Bishop Martin's motto, "In Him That Strengtheneth Me," and his initials, "W. C. M.," appear in the outer circle. Just inside the inner circle are the words "The Methodist Church," while in the center there is a Latin cross. He writes: "The following sentences would express my reason for choosing the wording on the outer margin: 'St. Paul has been my patron saint and source of inspiration in the ministry. This phrase, taken from his most intimate personal letter, is a part of the exultant declaration, "I can do all things in Him that strengtheneth me.'' ''

The Bishops whose names do not appear above either have no seals or have not responded to inquiries.

Facts About Our Bishops

THERE have been 68 bishops of the Church, including those who were bishops before the division in 1844, and 58 bishops in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, since the division.

Seven bishops were elected at Asheville in 1910 and a like number in Birmingham in 1938—the largest number on record.

The oldest man ever elected was John Early, who was selected at Columbus, Ga., in 1854, at the age of 68.

The bishops came into this world and passed out by months as follows:

	Born	Died

The oldest living bishop is Collins Denny, who was 84 on May 28, 1938.

The youngest living bishop is William T. Watkins.

Henry B. Bascom and John J. Tigert both died shortly after being elevated to the episcopacy—the former held only one Conference (St. Louis), while the latter held only two.

John J. Tigert died at the earliest age, lacking only four days of being 50 years old. His tragic death was due to "the splinter of a broken chicken bone."

The youngest man ever elected to the episcopacy was Charles B. Galloway, who was elected at the General Conference in Richmond, Va., in 1886, at the early age of 36.

When Our Bishops Retire

THE General Conference of 1930 at Dallas adopted legislation concerning the superannuation of a bishop which is now embodied in ¶ 123 of the Discipline, as follows: "A bishop may be superannuated on account of age or infirmity, at his own request, or on recommendation of the Committee on Episcopacy; provided, that no bishop shall remain on the effective list longer than the General Conference nearest his seventy-second birthday."

If each of the active bishops now living continues on the active roll until the General Conference when he will become automatically superannuated, the table below gives the year of his retirement and also his age on May 15 of the General Conference year, provided that the time of meeting of General Conferences is not changed:

Carmack's Pledge to the South

THE South is a land that has known sorrows; it is a land that has broken the ashen crust and moistened it with her tears; a land scarred and riven by the plowshare of war and billowed with the graves of her dead; but a land of legend, a land of song, a land of hallowed and heroic memories. To that land every drop of my blood, every fiber of my being, every pulsation of my heart is consecrated forever. I was born of her womb, I was nurtured at her breast, and when my last hour shall come, I pray God that I may be pillowed upon her bosom and rocked to sleep within her tender and encircling arms.

Educational Council

The purposes and functions of the Educational Council, which includes workers in all phases of the Church's educational program, follow three directions: social, inspirational, and practical. They are social in that the Council calls together in the fellowship of service leaders from over the Church who are engaged in a common task; inspirational because of the special addresses which feature the program; and practical because of the opportunity which the meetings provide for group thinking on common problems, for critical program evaluations by field workers, for general exchange of ideas and experiences, for checking up on previously used approaches, and for evolving new procedures.

Sabbath Observance

CONCERNING the observance of the Sabbath by our Church, the 1938 General Conference adopted the following very significant report:

The problem of the Sabbath is a peculiarly difficult one. There has been a reaction against a purely negative, Puritanical Sabbath which is in many respects wholesome, and yet its tendency is little by little to reduce the Holy Day to a holiday. Further, it is not easy to decide just how far we should enforce religious practices on all of society by law, and yet we feel the necessity of protecting the day against those who would entirely secularize it. And further, it is almost impossible to fix upon any standard of conduct which would be rationally defensible or would be accepted by all serious Christians.

Two things we can say with conviction. One is that the Sabbath has been one of the great forces in our civilization as well as our religion, and its loss would be disastrous in many ways. And the other is that our approach to the problem should be less negative and more creative. So long as we make the Sabbath a day for not doing things, our people naturally rationalize one practice after another and the day becomes more and more like every other day. We should train our people to look upon the Sabbath as an opportunity, and to plan in advance for forms of activity on the part of individuals and of the family as a whole which are crowded out of the rest of the week. There is a mine of opportunity here which has been very little worked.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE PUBLISHING AGENTS

THE exhibit of the business of your Publishing House for the year ending February 28, 1938, is herewith presented.

The House made a profit of $127,073.75.

The Book Committee has appropriated $100,000.00 to the Superannuates.

Our Church school periodicals are in general use throughout the Church. Only a few schools order their literature from the outside. Our publications are highly meritorious, and are furnished at a cost as low as other denominational publications—in fact, lower than many.

The Christian Advocate gives expression to our life and thought and is our channel of denominational information. It is not surpassed among weekly Church papers. A wider circulation would greatly enrich and enliven the Church.

The new Methodist Hymnal is gradually being placed in more and more of our Churches and gives promise of attaining general use in our congregations. Those who use it express high commendation.

Our Cokesbury books receive favor throughout this country and abroad. The announcements of their publication dates appear in our catalogues and Church press.

You are requested to examine the accompanying balance sheet. It shows that the assets of your Publishing House are nearly three million dollars and that there is no indebtedness, cash being on hand to pay current accounts.

The Publishing Agents are greatly indebted to the Book Committee and to the ministers and members of the Church for their friendly interest and consistent patronage.

Fraternally yours,

WHITMORE & SMITH, Agents.

Wesley's Eighty-Sixth Christmas

THE following is from Wesley's Journal when he was nearly eighty-seven! And to think that the great majority of our preachers today are superannuated long before that age. It gives us pause —in the midst of preparations for the Unifying Conference. (The average number of years of active service of the superannuates in the typical Texas and Virginia Conferences is 31.4. If we assume that the average age of the last twenty bishops elected before 1938 is typical of all preachers (22.6 years), this fixes the average of superannuation at 54—which is altogether too soon to be laid on the shelf.)

"Friday, December 25 (being Christmas Day). We began the service in the new chapel at four o'clock, as usual; where I preached again in the evening, after having officiated in the West-street at the common hour. Sunday, 27. I preached in St. Luke's, our parish church, in the afternoon, to a very numerous congregation, on 'The Spirit and the Bride say, Come.' So are the tables turned, that I have now more invitations to preach in churches than I can accept of."

Franklin D. Roosevelt Speaking

I have said and I desire to reiterate it that "what this weary world most needs is a revival of the spirit of religion. Would that such a revival could sweep the nations today and stir the hearts of men and women of all faiths to a reassertion of their belief in the Providence of God and the brotherhood of man." I doubt if there is in the world a single problem, whether social, political, or economic, which would not find ready solution if men and nations would rule their lives according to the plain teaching of the Sermon on the Mount.

Have We a Better Program?

Not long ago members of a church in faraway Teheran, Persia, adopted the following seven-point program:

1. Read a chapter of the Bible daily.
2. Pray daily for the pastor and for the church membership.
3. Join a Bible-study class.
4. Attend at least one regular church service each week.
5. Visit at least one needy person each week.
6. Give God at least the tithe.
7. Pay at least half the tithe to the church.

THE METHODISTS ARE ONE PEOPLE

By PAUL NEFF GARBER

"Lose no opportunity of declaring to all men that the Methodists are one people," was Wesley's last message to the American church. Yet almost at once differences of opinion and policy resulted in division. Now, with Methodists one again, men are asking: Why did they separate? How were they united?

THE METHODISTS ARE ONE PEOPLE recounts simply, impartially, accurately, and fully the whole story of Methodist discord and unity.

The Chapters:
CHRISTIANITY IN EARNEST. DIVISIONS OVER POLITY. OTHER FACTORS DIVIDE METHODISTS. THE DARK ERA. FRATERNITY AND FEDERATION. SHALL THE METHODISTS UNITE? MAKING THE PLAN OF UNION. UNITED METHODISM FACES THE FUTURE.

Without bias or reproach, Dr. Garber presents the historical, social, economic, and religious causes leading to the schisms and divisions of early days, and the subsequent dark years of strife. He traces then the trend toward organic union, explains the issues involved and the unsuccessful attempts, and gives account then of the final acceptance of the Plan of Union.

"No intelligent Methodist can afford to forego the privilege of owning a copy of this valuable treatment."—Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes.

"It presents in an entertaining way many valuable facts about the backgrounds and procedures of the great Methodist Movement which every Methodist should know."—Bishop John M. Moore.

"An informing and readable book, valuable to the layman as well as to the student of history. Dr. Garber has a keen sense of proportion."—Dr. James H. Straughn. $1

SMITH AND GOODSPEED'S SHORT BIBLE

Edited by Edgar J. Goodspeed and J. M. P. Smith

The Short Bible seeks to present those parts of the Bible which everyone ought to be acquainted with, from a literary, historical, or religious point of view. Each book is prefaced with brief, interesting editorial comments about why it was written and its place in history. Printed like a modern book. (149)

THE BIBLE: DESIGNED TO BE READ AS LIVING LITERATURE

By Ernest Sutherland Bates

The Old and New Testaments are here presented with scrupulous fidelity to the time-monored King James Version. A totally new editorial arrangement and typographical form has been devised. First, the readability of the type could hardly be bettered. The pages are set in a single column easy for the eye. Arrangement of the various books is by time and subject matter. Prose is printed as prose, verse as verse. Modern punctuation marks are used. A distinctive literary contribution.

Only one thing left—to read the Bible. This Bible is designed for the purpose. (95)
1,296 pages; cloth $3.75

SMITH AND GOODSPEED TRANSLATION OF THE BIBLE

AN AMERICAN TRANSLATION

By J. M. P. Smith

Editor and co-translator of the Old Testament and

Edgar J. Goodspeed

Translator of the New Testament

Four distinctions mark this new American Bible:

1. It is an American translation, free from foreign and antiquated phrases.
2. It is translated by both Greek and Hebrew scholars, in order to obtain the most accurate version possible.
3. It distinguishes between prose and poetry.
4. Designed for the general reader as well as the student, it is as simple as it is scholarly in translation.

Modern methods of scholarship and printing, applied to the Bible, renew the vigor with which its great messages meet the problems of contemporary living.

Matthew Henry's Commentary

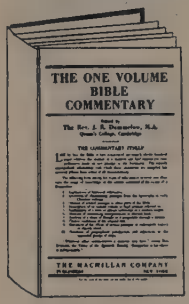
An Entirely New and Typographically Corrected Edition

IN SIX HANDY VOLUMES

With illuminating Introduction by Dr. Charles H. Trumbull. The ONLY Large Type, Handy Volume Edition—easy to handle—easy to read. In seeking a commentary, ministers and Bible students are turning to Matthew Henry today as never before. This is the work of which C. H. Spurgeon said: "Every minister ought to read it entirely and carefully through once at least. He will acquire a vast store of sermons, and as for thoughts, they will swarm around him like twittering swallows around an old gable toward the close of autumn."

Substantial Morocco-Grained Fabrikoid, $15.00

Dummelow's One-Volume Commentary



By various writers. Edited by J. R. Dummelow. Complete in one volume. With maps. It contains over 1,200 pages devoted to (1) general articles; (2) detailed comment on the entire Bible verse by verse, preceded by searching introductions to each book; (3) a section of maps of biblical lands and plans of the Temple.

$2.50

Clark's Commentary

A commentary with critical notes. Original edition. 6 volumes. Cloth, $15.00; each volume, $2.50. Buckram binding, $18 a set; each volume, $3.00.

The Abingdon One-Volume Commentary

This is the latest of the one-volume commentaries on the Bible. A single volume of comments covering every book of the Bible must be either uncomfortably bulky or excessively condensed in its treatment. This one strikes a happy medium. Running to 1,452 pages, it becomes a rather thick and heavy book, but not too large for comfortable handling. More than sixty schools of the United States and Great Britain have contributed to this work. The commentary is popular in its nature, but takes advantage of the very latest advances in archaeological and historical investigations. It contains a number of important special chapters—essays, they might be called—in addition to the expositions of the several books of Scripture.

Pastoral Psychology

AUTHORITIES TELL US that 75,000 American citizens are annually committed to insane asylums. While the minister cannot compete with the psychiatrist in the treatment of sick minds, he can, nevertheless, be familiar with certain practical elements of psychiatry and frequently lend his "ounce of prevention" in his pastoral work. "This is the most practical handbook we know of for the pastor." (RELIGIOUS BOOK CLUB.) $2.00

MYRON LEE PONTIUS

When Sorrow Comes

THROUGH THIS BOOK, most unusual in many ways, Dr. Pontius offers his pastoral colleagues a richness of counsel and a wealth of material in his most trying task—entering homes where sorrow has just come; committing to the earth the remains of loved ones; and giving to the bereaved, during the post-burial period, ever-mindful sympathy, direction, consideration, and Christian comfort. 75 cents

J. E. CRAWFORD

Financial Recovery for the Local Church

A WELL-BALANCED TREATMENT, written on a highly spiritual level. Throughout there are practical suggestions. "Not a book of methods simply. He goes to the root of the matter—showing the relationship of giving to the life of the Christian and of finances to the welfare of the Church. The methods and devices suggested have come out of actual experience." (REVIEW AND EXPOSITOR.) $1.00
